

You're using AI like it's 1999.

Gmail showed us what happens next. Four shifts, repeating now.

Gmail 2004

Your AI 2026

Search

You stopped filing your mail.

Memory

You stop re-explaining your context.

Filters

Routine mail handled before you saw it.

Skills

Teach a task once, never brief it again.

Calendar & docs

One login, no export, no import.

Connectors

Your AI sees your tools, no copy-paste.

Unread count

New mail found you.

Agents

Results come to you, not the other way.

*The chat tab with copy-paste is the Hotmail era of AI. It starts with one task.
